

FIGURES

- 1 Map of the Ottoman Empire, circa 1650 xviii
- 2 Engraving depicting an artful pile of Ottoman chronicles in an eighteenth-century library, from Tableau général de l'Empire othoman 34
- 3 Book prices in Cairo, 1600–1749 38
- 4 Example of hemmed binding 45
- 5 Engraving depicting the public library of ‘Abdulḥamīd I (r. 1774–1789), from Tableau général de l'Empire othoman 65
- 6 Engraving depicting the public library of Grand Vizier Rāḡīb Paşa (r. 1758–1763), from Tableau général de l'Empire othoman 67
- 7 Addendum censoring Mollāzāde Muḥammad b. Abī Bakr al-Kurdī’s commentary on Birgivī Meḥmed’s al-Ṭarīqa al-muḥammadiyya 85
- 8 Map of pamphlets produced on the topic of chickpea cauterization (kayy al-ḥimmaşa) in the late seventeenth-century Ottoman Empire 181
- 9 Minkārīzāde Yaḥyā’s pamphlet on the religion of Abraham (millet-i Ibrāhīm) 186
- 10 First page of ‘Abd al-Ghanī al-Nābulusī’s pamphlet on chickpea cauterization (kayy al-ḥimmaşa), al-Maqāṣid al-mumaḥḥiṣa fī bayān kayy al-ḥimmaşa 188
- 11 Map of ‘Abd al-Ghanī al-Nābulusī’s correspondence network as taken from his published anthology of letters 296

This page intentionally left blank