

CONTENTS

Introduction

George Demacopoulos and Aristotle Papanikolaou 1

PART I: NICAEAN THEOLOGIES

Under the Shadow of the Samosatene: From Antioch 268
to Nicaea 325 and Beyond 9

John Behr

Christophanic Exegesis in Defense of the Nicaean Faith: Patristic Authors and Scholars of Patristics 22

Bogdan G. Bucur

Nicaea in the Dogmatic Order of Late Antiquity 42

Emanuel Fiano

Hans Urs von Balthasar, Henri de Lubac, and the Paradox of Nicaea 52

Francesca Aran Murphy

The Theologian, the Historian, and the Holy Spirit: Reflections Around Nicaea 67

Karen Kilby

God with Us: A Contemporary Sophiological Christology 75

Brandon Gallaher

PART II: HISTORICAL MEMORY

The First Council of Nicaea: Golden Standard or Squandered Opportunity? 97

John Chryssavgis

Preaching Nicaea in Verse: The Legacy of the Council in the Writings of Jacob of Serugh 117

Erin Walsh

Civic Religion in the Long Roman Empire 137
Leonora Neville

Nicaea's Digital Afterlives 155
Caroline T. Schroeder

PART III: CONCILIARITY

The Council of Jerusalem and the Council of Nicaea 177
Leslie Baynes

Nature, Will, and Grace: The Council of Nicaea and the Ontological Presuppositions of Conciliarity 191
Demetrios Bathrellos

Conciliarity Beyond the Greco-Roman Empire: Thomas
Christian Yogams and Lay Participation in Ecclesial Decision Making 208
Jaisy A. Joseph

Nicaea, Negative Theology, Democracy 225
Vincent Lloyd

PART IV: ECUMENICAL IMPLICATIONS

A Symbol of the Whole: The Nicene Creed and Dogmatic Minimalism 239
Alexis Torrance

Nicaea, Pelikan, and the Legitimacy of Doctrinal Development in Orthodoxy 250
A. Edward Sicienski

Newman, Nicaea, and the Prerogatives of the Past 260
Cyril O'Regan

Nicaea and the Legacy of Truth: Bounded Virtue and Ascetical Spirituality 281
Stephen M. Meawad

PART V: THE FUTURE OF NICAEA

Re-Reception of the Faith of Nicaea Then and Now: Reflections on the Role of Reinterpretation of Theology Through Conciliarity 293
Maxim Vasiljevic

The Future of Nicaea 305
Christophe Chalamet

Nicaea as a Task for the Future 315
Kathryn Tanner

List of Contributors 329

NICAEA AND THE FUTURE OF CHRISTIANITY

