

Contents

Contributors vii

Introduction 1

Kuniya Nasukawa and Henk van Riemsdijk

Part I: Phonology

Contrastiveness: The basis of identity avoidance 13

Kuniya Nasukawa and Phillip Backley

Rhyme as phonological multidominance 39

Marc van Oostendorp

Babbling, intrinsic input and the statistics of identical transvocalic consonants in English monosyllables: Echoes of the Big Bang? 59

Patrik Bye

Identity avoidance in the onset 101

Toyomi Takahashi

Part II: Morpho-Syntax

Unifying minimality and the OCP: Local anti-identity as economy..... 123

M. Rita Manzini

Semantic versus syntactic agreement in anaphora: The role of identity avoidance 161

Peter Ackema

Part III: Syntax

Exploring the limitations of identity effects in syntax 199
Artemis Alexiadou

Constraining Doubling 225
Ken Hiraiwa

Recoverability of deletion 255
Kyle Johnson

On the loss of identity and emergence of order: Symmetry breaking in linguistic theory 289
Wei-wen Roger Liao

Part IV: General

Linguistic and non-linguistic identity effects: Same or different? 323
Moira Yip

On the biological origins of linguistic identity 341
Bridget Samuels

Language index 365

Subject index 367