

Tables

■ Tables

2.1	Gender Paradigms, Principles, and Policy Orientation	23
3.1	Characteristics of Governing Ideologies	41
3.2	Compounded Ideology: Gender Strands and Variants, Shared Dimensions, and Sources of Variance	49
3.3	Compounded Views of Welfare: Shared and Divergent Policy Preferences	51
7.1	Characteristics of Survey Sample Compared to Wisconsin State Legislature, 1995–1996	174
7.2	Relationships Among Ideology, Party, and Policy Priorities in Wisconsin	177
7.3	Staff Rating of Legislators' Governing Ideology	177
7.4	Factor Analysis of Wisconsin Legislators' Personal and Political Beliefs	182
8.1	Regression Analysis of Congress Members' Welfare-Reform Index Scores	193
8.2	Welfare-Reform Voting and Gender-Issue Voting, Ways and Means Committee	196
8.3	Welfare-Reform Voting and Gender-Issue Voting, Economic Educational Opportunities Committee	197
8.4	Non-Gender-Related and Gender-Related Amendments "Proposed" and "Made in Order" by House Rules Committee for PRWORA	203
8.5	Non-Gender-Related and Gender-Related Amendments Heard on the Senate Floor for PRWORA	206
8.6	Total Number of Successful Gender-Related Amendments in the House and Senate on PRWORA	207

