

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
1 Exploring Islam in US Prisons Mark S. Hamm and Nawal H. Ammar	1
Part 1 Context
2 Muslim History and Demographics, in and out of Prison Hamid Kusha	9
3 Islamic Perspectives on Crime, Punishment, and Prison Nawal H. Ammar	29
4 Challenges in Research Muzammil Quraishi	47
Part 2 Living and Spreading Islam in Prison
5 Religious Rights, Religious Discrimination Kenneth L. Marcus	65
6 Conversion: Motives, Patterns, and Practices Nawal H. Ammar and Robert R. Weaver	79
7 Imams in Prisons: Balancing Faith and Religious Politics Nawal H. Ammar and Amanda Couture-Carron	97
Part 3 After September 11
8 Detention Immediately After September 11 Irum Sheikh	115
9 Prison Islam in the Age of Sacred Terror Mark Hamm	125
10 “Prislam” Myths and Realities Timothy Hiller	147
11 Policy Responses, Personal Implications Amir Marvasti	167
12 Muslims in US Security Prisons David P. Forsythe	183

Part 4 Conclusion

13	Building Better Understandings of Religion, Corrections, and Society Nawal H. Ammar	203
	References	217
	The Contributors	241
	Index	243
	About the Book	255