

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	vii
Introduction	1

PART ONE: BOOKS AS OBJECTS AND THEIR DIGITIZATION

Chapter 1. Understanding the Artifactual Value of Books ALBERTO CAMPAGNOLO	17
Chapter 2. Conservation and Digitization: A Difficult Balance? ALBERTO CAMPAGNOLO	49

PART TWO: CONSERVATION AND DIGITIZATION IN PRACTICE

Chapter 3. Conservation towards Large-Scale Digitization at the Vatican Library ÁNGELA NÚÑEZ GAITÁN	89
Chapter 4. Large-Scale Digitization at The National Archives CATT THOMPSON-BAUM	97
Chapter 5. British Library/Qatar Foundation Partnership and the Digitization Project: A Case Study about Conservation Processes within Mass Digitization of Library Material FLAVIO MARZO	105
Chapter 6. The Digitization of Medieval Western Manuscripts at Wellcome Collection STEFANIA SIGNORELLO	117

Chapter 7. Caring for the Object during Digitization of Written Heritage: The Strategy of the Herzog August Library Wolfenbüttel ALMUTH CORBACH	127
Chapter 8. The Great Parchment Book Project CAROLINE DE STEFANI and PHILIPPA SMITH	145
Chapter 9. The Development of the Language of Bindings Thesaurus ATHANASIOS VELIOS and NICHOLAS PICKWOOD	157
Chapter 10. Spectral Imaging to Aid Preservation and Conservation of Cultural Heritage FENELLA G. FRANCE	169
Chapter 11. Multispectral Imaging for Special Collection Materials MICHAEL B. TOTH	179
PART THREE: CONSERVATORS AND DIGITIZATION EXPERTS IN DIALOGUE
Chapter 12. The Digitization of Manuscripts from the Point of View of a Book Conservator ABIGAIL B. QUANDT	199
Chapter 13. Implementing Advanced Digital Imaging Research in Cultural Heritage: Building Relationships between Conservators and Computational Imaging Scientists MELISSA TERRAS	217
Chapter 14. Coda: Concluding Thoughts on Digital Surrogates ALBERTO CAMPAGNOLO	233
Bibliography	243
Index	289