

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Foreword by Michael Berenbaum	ix
Foreword by Luc Albinski	xxi
Preface	2
Chapter 1: Introduction to the Jewish Community in Poland	7
Chapter 2: The Medical System in Prewar Poland	11
Chapter 3: Jewish Doctors and Antisemitism between the Wars	22
Chapter 4: Healthcare during and in the Aftermath of the 1939 Siege of Warsaw	50
Chapter 5: Healthcare Prior to the Creation of the Ghetto	81
Chapter 6: Healthcare after the Sealing of the Warsaw Ghetto	104
Chapter 7: The Great Deportation (Grossaktion)	151
Chapter 8: Healthcare after the Great Deportation	189
Chapter 9: The Ghetto Uprising and Its Aftermath	201
Chapter 10: Resistance by the Medical Fraternity	222
Chapter 11: Conclusion	238
Appendix 1: List of Jewish Doctors Who Were Arrested and Held Hostage in 1940 Following Andrzej Kott's Escape from the Gestapo	245
Appendix 2: List of Non-Aryan Doctors in Warsaw from the Archives of the Jewish Historical Institute	248
Appendix 3: List of Jewish Doctors Working and Living in Warsaw in 1940–1942	273
Appendix 4: List of Jewish Doctors Moved from the Warsaw Ghetto to the Łódź Ghetto in 1941/1942	351
Appendix 5: Schedule of Pharmacies Overseen by the Pharmacy Department of the Judenrat	352
Appendix 6: A List of Pharmacies Overseen by the Pharmacy Department of the Judenrat in the Ghetto in September 1942	353

Appendix 7:	List of Doctors who Saved Jews in Warsaw in 1939–1945	354
Appendix 8:	Photographs of Selected Doctors and Nurses	357
Appendix 9:	List of Teachers of Medicine in the Ghetto	383
Index		387