

Detailed Contents

---

Brief Contents	vii
Acknowledgments	xiii
Foreword	xv
Introduction: Of Beauty, Truth, and Evil	1
1. Truth and Madness	1
2. Gogol's Theory of Evil	9
3. Gogol's Therapeutic Model against Evil	17
Part One: Chichikov's Prehistory	21
Chapter 1. Ethos and Epic	23
1. The Author Reviews His Work	23
2. The System of the Five Landowners	25
Chapter 2. The Ground Plan of Dead Souls	33
1. Pliushkin	40
a) Young Man and Old	40
b) Windows of the Soul	42
c) Journey into the World	43
d) Years of Apprenticeship	45
2. Sobakevich	49
a) Amor and Agon	50
b) Degrees of Lying	51
c) Asceticism and Gluttony	53
d) The Trickster Tricked	54
3. Nozdrev	58
a) The Plans of Mice and Men	58
b) A Gamblers' Duel	61
c) Boundary Transgressions	67
d) Of Sangfroid and Sweat	70
4. Korobochka	72
a) The Birth of the Business Idea out of the Dirt	72
b) Backwoods Inventory	74

c) Chichikov Undressed	78
d) Poetic Misdemeanor	79
5. Manilov	83
a) Apologia of Insignificance	85
b) Theory of the Passions	87
c) Parable of the Insouciant Landowner	90
d) Kifa Mokievich and Mokii Kifovich	92
Chapter 3. The Ground Plan of Dead Souls Revisited	97
 Part Two: Chichikov's Crime	 101
Chapter 4. On Truth and Lies in a Moral Sense	103
1. Schiller's Distinction between False and Aesthetical Appearances	104
2. The Homeric Liar-Hero	108
3. The Platonic-Christian Truth-Ethos	111
4. Gogol between Homer, Schiller, and Christianity	116
Chapter 5. The Five Faces of Lying	121
1. Manilov	121
a) Manilovka, or the Realm of Euphemism	121
b) The First Face of the Lie—Rhetoric	122
c) The Janitor of Hades	123
d) Manilov and Chichikov	124
2. Korobochka	127
a) From Manilovka to Zamanilovka	129
b) Mistress of Hades	131
c) The Second Face of the Lie—Magic	134
d) Korobochka and Chichikov	136
3. Nozdrev	138
a) From Zamanilovka to Nozdrev	138
b) The Spirit that Denies	140
c) The Third Face of the Lie—Nihilism	146
d) Nozdrev and Chichikov	148
4. Sobakevich	150
a) Sobakevich and Chichikov	150
b) The Fourth Face of the Lie—Cynicism	153
c) From Nozdrev to Sobakevich	155
d) The Deathless Koshchei	160

5. Pliushkin	163
a) From Sobakevich to Pliushkin	163
b) The Forgotten Face of Truth—the Divine Logos	164
c) The Christian Sinner	166
d) Pliushkin and Chichikov	169
Chapter 6. In the Shadow Realm of Lies	171
Part Three: Chichikov's Punishment	175
Chapter 7. Judgment and Rumor	177
1. The Victory of the Lie before the Worldly Court	181
a) Worldly and Heavenly Courts	181
b) Chichikov before the Worldly Court	183
c) Lying Rules	185
d) From Master to Slave of the Imagination	186
2. The Crowning of the Lie and the Banishing of Truth	189
a) Drama, Fama, Rumor	189
b) Scandal and Feast	191
c) The Crowning of the Lie	193
d) The Banishing of Truth	196
3. The Traducing of the Lie by Rumor	201
a) The Judgment of Rumor	201
b) Fama—Masculine and Feminine	204
c) The Hermeneutics of Rumor	208
d) Fama as Self-Fulfilling Prophecy	210
4. The Defense of the Lie by the Lie as Art	211
a) The Twelfth Chapter of Dead Souls	211
b) “Neither Hand nor Foot”: Captain Kopeikin	213
c) The Poet’s “Monkey”	215
d) To the Devil with Truth!	217
5. The Banishing of the Lie by the Lie Autonomous	219
a) The Knot Untied	219
b) Chichikov’s First Corpse: The Public Prosecutor	222
c) Beyond the Competence of the Worldly Court	224
d) Closing Circles	225
Chapter 8. The Five Acts of the Drama	227
Chapter 9. Ethos and Epic: Chichikov’s Crime and Punishment	232

List of Sources for Illustrations	239
Bibliography	241
A. Nikolai Vasilyevich Gogol	241
B. Evil	247
C. Lying and Rumor	251
D. Feasting and Scandal	252
E. General Literature	253
Index	261