

Contents

List of Illustrations and Map	vi
1. Some Observations Regarding Barbarian Military Demography: Geiseric's Census of 429 and Its Implications Bernard S. Bachrach	1
2. War Words and Battle Spears: The kesja and kesjulag in Old Norse Literature K. James McMullen	39
3. The Political and Military Agency of Ecclesiastical Leaders in Anglo-Norman England: 1066–1154 Craig M. Nakashian	51
4. Couched Lance and Mounted Shock Combat in the East: The Georgian Experience Mamuka Tsurtsumia	81
5. The Battle of Arsur: A Short-Lived Victory Michael Ehrlich	109
6. Prelude to Kephissos (1311): An Analysis of the Battle of Apros (1305) Nikolaos S. Kanellopoulos and Ioanna K. Lekea	119
7. Horse Restoration (Restaurum Equorum) in the Army of Henry of Grosmont, 1345: A Benefit of Military Service in the Hundred Years' War Nicholas A. Gribit	139
8. The Indenture between Edward III and the Black Prince for the Prince's Expedition to Gascony, 10 July 1355 Mollie M. Madden	165
9. Investigating the Socio-Economic Origins of English Archers in the Second Half of the Fourteenth Century Gary Baker	173
10. War and the Great Schism: Military Factors Determining Allegiances in Iberia L.J. Andrew Villalon	217
List of Contributors	239