

CONTENTS

List of Figures	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Language and the Rise of Identity Politics: An Introduction Christina Späti	1

PART I. LANGUAGE AND IDENTITY POLITICS: THEORY AND CONCEPTS

Chapter 1 Language and Collective Identity: Theorizing Complexity Peter Ives	17
Chapter 2 The Politics of Linguistic Identity in Europe: Between the Expression of Power and the Power of Expressivity Peter A. Kraus	38

PART II. LANGUAGE AND COLLECTIVE IDENTITY IN MULTILINGUAL STATES

Chapter 3 Language and Identity Politics in Belgium Claude Javeau	61
Chapter 4 Plurilingualism and Identity Politics: The Case of Switzerland Christina Späti	73
Chapter 5 Languages and Collective Identities in Switzerland: The Case of Bilingual Cantons (Bern, Fribourg, Valais) Manuel Meune	93

Chapter 6	Language Rights and Language Endangerment in Canada: The Case of Indigenous Languages Donna Patrick	119
------------------	--	-----

PART III. LANGUAGE AND IDENTITY POLITICS IN IMMIGRATION SOCIETIES

Chapter 7	Immigrants and the Reframing of Language and National Identity Politics in the United States Ronald Schmidt Sr.	139
Chapter 8	Challenges of Diversity: Language and Immigration in Switzerland Damir Skenderovic	158
Chapter 9	Language and the Transformation of Identity Politics in Minority Francophone Communities in Canada: Between Collective Linguistic Identity and Individualistic Integration Policies Nicole Gallant	177
	The Problematic Nexus of Language and Identity: Some Concluding Remarks Robert Gould	198
	Index	213