

CONTENTS

Introduction
Carl Lankowski	ix
Chapter 1 Calvinism and Democracy: The Case of the Dutch Republic (1555-1787)
Philip S. Gorski	1
Chapter 2 Liberalization and Democratization in Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Germany in Comparative Perspective
Thomas Ertman	34
Chapter 3 Germany on the Global Stage: The U.S.-German Relationship after Unification
Karen Donfried	51
Chapter 4 The Politics of Adapting Organized Capitalism: United Germany, the New Europe, and Globalization
Christopher S. Allen	77
Chapter 5 The “Storm before the Calm”: Labor Markets, Unemployment, and Standort Deutschland
Michael G. Huelshoff	95
Chapter 6 The Bundesrat, Interest Groups, and Gridlock: German Federalism at the End of the Twentieth Century
Stephen J. Silvia	121

Chapter 7	Fahrvergnügen on the Datenbahn: Germany Confronts the Information Age Beth Simone Noveck	137
Chapter 8	Engineered Like No Other: German Society and the Automobile Carolyn Höfig	155
Chapter 9	Globalization, Gender, and the German Welfare State: The Maldistributive Consequences of Retrenchment Patricia Davis and Simon Reich	175
Chapter 10	Grace? Under Pressure? The Goldhagen Controversy after Two Years Jeremiah M. Riemer	212
	List of Contributors	227
	Index	229

A Festschrift for Andrei Markovits

