

Contents

Abbreviations	xi
Preface	xiii
CHAPTER 1
Austrian Identity: Between National Pride, Solipsism and European Patriotism	1
CHAPTER 2
Peculiarities of Austrian Democracy	34
CHAPTER 3
‘Austria Can Beat Everything, If It Only Wants To’: Myth and Reality of Austrian Economic Policy since 1945	58
CHAPTER 4
Fourteen Chancellors, and One Woman	97
CHAPTER 5
Austria’s Media as a Political Test Lab: The Newspaper Tycoons of the Second Republic	159
CHAPTER 6
Neutrality and the State Treaty in a New Europe	187
CHAPTER 7
‘Alles Walzer...’: The Politics of Art and Culture as the Early Second Republic’s Elixir of Life	209
CHAPTER 8
The Austrian Model of the Welfare State and Intergenerational and Intergender Contracts since 1945	236
CHAPTER 9
The Shadow of the Past	257
CHAPTER 10
Austria’s Political Future: Some Trends	287
Bibliography	305
Name Index	318

TABLES

TABLE 1. Comparison of the party affiliations of board members of the nationalized industry 1964 and 1980/1981 (per percentage)	45
TABLE 2. External aid until the signing of the Austrian State Treaty in 1955 (quoted in million dollars)	69
TABLE 3. Utilization of the foreign economic aid until the year 1955 (quoted in million schillings)	70
TABLE 4. Federal contributions to different sectors of the obligatory pension insurance in 1970–2002	247
TABLE 5. Women in the Austrian government 1945–2000 (in absolute numbers)	253
TABLE 6. Women in National Parliaments (1999 and 2004)	253

FIGURES

FIGURE 1. Circulation of party daily newspapers compared with independent papers (times 1,000); figures rounded	161
FIGURE 2. Adjusted and non-adjusted social quota in per cent of GNP 1960–2001	244
FIGURE 3. Adjusted social expenditures in per cent according to allocation in 1980–2001	245
FIGURE 4. Social expenditure by allocation in per cent of GNP in 1980–2001	246
FIGURE 5. Adjusted social expenditures earmarked for old age pensioners and surviving dependents in per cent of GNP in 2000	246
FIGURE 6. Adjusted social expenditure earmarked for families in per cent of GNP in 2000	247
FIGURE 7. Financing social benefits through taxes and other revenue in 2000 across the EU	248
FIGURE 8. Demographic change	249
FIGURE 9. Dynamic vs. statistical aging, 1870–2050	249

ILLUSTRATIONS

ILLUSTRATION 1.1. 'Tourist Paradise Austria.' Advertisement of Austrian Tourism.	4
ILLUSTRATION 1.2. The Soviet Headquarters at Wiener Ringstraße (Palais Epstein).	10
ILLUSTRATION 1.3. When good intentions meet reality: Poster of 'Aktion Mitmensch' designed to promote tolerance of ethnic minorities and sponsored by the Austrian Advertising Industry (1973). The words allude to the Slavic origin of many Austrians.	26
ILLUSTRATION 3.1. An adult's food ration for one week in late 1945/early 1946.	59
ILLUSTRATION 3.2. Map of Austria's industrial potential, Berliner Illustrierte Zeitung , 1938.	64
ILLUSTRATION 4.1. The 'founding fathers' of the Second Republic in front of the Liberation Memorial at Wiener Schwarzenbergplatz.	99
ILLUSTRATION 4.2. Leopold Figl, a specifically 'Austrian' politician, with his family.	104
ILLUSTRATION 4.3. Julius Raab, the 'State Treaty Chancellor'.	110
ILLUSTRATION 4.4. Minister of Foreign Affairs Bruno Kreisky visiting American President John F. Kennedy, 1963.	118
ILLUSTRATION 4.5. Kreisky, the foreign policy expert: Vienna talks on 9 July 1978.	123
ILLUSTRATION 4.6. After the presidential election of Kurt Waldheim, Fred Sinowatz (right) steps down as chancellor and is followed by Franz Vranitzky.	127
ILLUSTRATION 4.7. After the 'Sanctions' of the EU-14, T-shirts promoted a misjudged small country.	132
ILLUSTRATION 4.8. The controversial 'Porsche Coalition': Jörg Haider and Wolfgang Schüssel demonstrating harmony after the formation of the government in 2000.	133
ILLUSTRATION 5.1. Increasing interest in news in the postwar period led to this line in front of a newspaper kiosk.	162

ILLUSTRATION 5.2. Bruno Kreisky, ‘Chancellor of the Media’ (press conference after a Council of Ministers).	181
ILLUSTRATION 7.1. A curious instance of Viennese urban planning: How to revive Prater?	212
ILLUSTRATION 7.2. Protest against the ‘Fab Four’ from Liverpool – another facette of Austria’s postwar culture.	232
ILLUSTRATION 8.1. Occupation costs as a political argument. Poster, 1952.	239
ILLUSTRATION 8.2. The first mayoress in Austria: Zenzi Hölzl, SPÖ, in Gloggnitz, Lower Austria (1948–1958).	252
ILLUSTRATION 9.1. Many protest rallies took place after the presidential election of Kurt Waldheim.	275
ILLUSTRATION 9.2. The report of the ‘three wise men’ was an important precondition for the annulment of the ‘sanctions’ against Austria imposed in February 2000 by the EU-14.	282