

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
List of Abbreviations	xiii
Glossary	xv
Chronology of Jesuit Missions in Chad and Cameroon	xvii
Introduction: The End of the Jesuit Mission in Africa?	1
Part I The Jesuit Project in West Africa: French Catholicism and Colonialism in Chad, 1935–58
Introduction	25
1 Era of Confusion: The Vatican’s or France’s Wider Agenda? 1935–46	30
2 Founding Era: The Conservatism of Frédéric de Bélinay, Jesuit Pioneer in Chad, 1946–58	57
3 Colonial Era: Joseph du Bouchet and the Building of the Jesuit Mission in Chad, 1947–58	75
Part II The Outward Mission: Education and Competing Catholicisms
Introduction	95
4 Era of Civilisation: Popular Education and Islamism	98
5 Era of Accommodation: Mission towards the Southern ‘Ethno-Religionists’	124
6 Era of Revolution: Bishop Paul Dalmais and Chad’s Cultural Revolution, 1958–75	141

Part III The Postcolonial Mission and Catholicity: From Chad to Cameroon, 1962–78

Introduction	175
7 Era of Consolidation: The Rebirth of Missionary Catholicism after Independence, 1962–73	177
8 Era of Experimentation: M.-P. Hebga, First Cameroonian Major Superior, 1968–73	194
9 Era of Dissent: Cameroonian Jesuits and Global Catholicism, 1974–78	226
Conclusion	255
Bibliography	273
Index	295