

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Editors' Note	ix
Abbreviations	x
1 Nearly-Not Miracles of the Carolingian Era: A Hypothesis Alice Rio	1
2 Noble Fathers and Low-Status Daughters in the Eleventh Century: Rilint, libera , and Hiltigund, presbyterissa Fiona J. Griffiths	23
3 The Norman Conquest of England, the Papacy, and the Papal Banner Dan Armstrong	47
4 Ostmen, Normans, or Norwegians? Names and Identities in the Irish Sea World c. 1100 Patrick Wadden	73
5 The Origins of Administrative Lordship in Medieval Flanders: A Reassessment Jean-François Nieu	93
6 Multiple Allegiance and Its Impact: England and Normandy, 1066–c. 1204 Hannah Boston	115
7 The Wiley Lecture: Monsters in Anglo-Norman Historiography; Two Notes on William of Newburgh's Revenants Charity Urbanski	133
8 A Female King or a Good Wife and a Great Mother? Seals, Coins, and the Epitaphic Legacy of the Empress Matilda Mariah Cooper	149

- 9 Harangue or Homily? Walter Espec, Deuteronomy, and the Renewal of the Covenant in Aelred of Rievaulx's Relatio de Standardo 163
Jesse Patrick Harrington
- 10 Anger Management: Modeling Christian Kingship in Peter of Blois's Dialogus 185
Meghan Woolley
- 11 In His Name: Religion as Administrative Strategy in Thirteenth-Century Champagne (and Navarre?) 205
Jillian M. Bjerke
- 12 Warhorse Markets and Social Status of Combatants under Edward I of England, 1296–1307 227
David S. Bachrach, Daniel Bachrach, and Lu Zuo