

Contents

---

List of Illustrations, Figures and Tables viii

Introduction.

Collections, Collectors and the Collecting of Knowledge in Education 1
Peter Carrier and Anke Hertling

Part I. Collectors and Collecting

Chapter 1.

The Polish School Museum in Lviv and Its Legacy in the Poznań
University Library 19
Anna Maria Harbig

Chapter 2.

The History and Singularity of a Government Library:
The Collection of Educational Historical Printed Materials at the Austrian Ministry of Education 31
Walter Kissling, Ernst Chorherr and Christian Treinen

Chapter 3.

Private Primer Collecting: An Aid or a Hindrance to Public
Collections? 57
Wendelin Sroka

- Chapter 4.
Collecting Professional Pedagogical Knowledge around 1900:
Adolph Rebhuhn and the German School Museum
(Later German Teachers' Library) 78
Monika Mattes

Part II. Objects, Materials and Old and New Media

- Chapter 5.
The Glass Slide Collection of the German Rural Residential
Schools Association (Verband Deutscher Schullandheime e.V.) 99
Bettina Reimers

- Chapter 6.
Collecting and Using Audiovisual Educational Aids from East Germany 111
Kerrin v. Engelhardt and Ulrich Ruedel

- Chapter 7.
The Wall Chart Collection of the Danish National Museum of Education between Dissolution and Preservation 126
Lea Cecilie Bennedsen and Anette Eklund Hansen

- Chapter 8.
Collecting and Accessing Curricula at the Georg Eckert Institute 138
Adriana Madej-Stang

Part III. Access and Acquisition

- Chapter 9.
From the Critical Study of Jewish History and Culture to 'Enemy Research' and Provenance Research: The Library of the Breslau Rabbinical Seminary 153
Jenka Fuchs

- Chapter 10.
Collecting Data towards Writing the History of China's Socialist Education 174
Zhipeng Gao

- Chapter 11.
Accessing and Acquiring Textbooks for Research 191
Heather Sharp

Chapter 12.

Locating the History Textbooks of the Late Ottoman Empire 206
Ömür Şans-Yıldırım

Conclusion.

Collecting Literacy when Gathering, Storing and Disseminating Educational Media 219
Peter Carrier

Index 229