

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Dan Diner and Gotthart Wunberg

THE SETTING

Memory and Restitution: World War II as a Foundational Event in a Uniting Europe	9
Dan Diner

ANTHROPOLOGIZING RESTITUTION

Money and Memory: Transvaluating the Redress of Loss	27
John Borneman
Pecunifying Respectability? On the Impossibility of Honorable Restitution	51
Natan Sznaider
Conversion, Exchange, and Replacement: Reflecting Cultural Legacies of Indemnity	65
Sigrid Weigel

COMMISSIONS OF INQUIRY AND THE PRACTICE OF RESTITUTION

Converting Wrongs to Rights? Compensating Nazi Forced Labor as Paradigm	83
Lutz Niethammer
Scholarly Investigation and Material Compensation: The Austrian Historical Commission at Work	105
Clemens Jabloner

TESSELATED EUROPEAN HISTORIES OF MEMORY

The Object's Memory: Remembering Rural Jews in Southern Germany Ulrich Baumann	117
“These Are German Houses”: Polish Memory Confronting Jedwabne François Guesnet	141
Looted Texts: Restituting Jewish Libraries Markus Kirchhoff	161
Restitution and Reconstructed Identity: Jewish Property and Collective Self-Awareness in Central Europe Catherine Horel	189
Eloquent Silence: Inscribing Hungarian Memories Béla Rásky	217
Recovering Austrian Memory: Stratifying Restitution Debates Heidemarie Uhl	233
Historical Injustices and International Morality: Eastern European and Swiss Cases Elazar Barkan	255
Recollecting Expulsion: Locating German Refugees in Polish and Czech Memories Claudia Kraft	273
Conflicting Memories, Unrestituted: Wadi Salib as an Israeli Political Metaphor Yfaat Weiss	301

RESOLUTIONS

Wiedergutmachung in Germany: Balancing Historical Accounts 1945–2000 Hans Günther Hockerts	323
Selected Bibliography	383
Contributors	409
Index	413