

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I WOULD LIKE to thank my mentors: Kathleen Lamp, Robert E. Bjork, and Peter Goggin. Their guidance and advice have helped more than they could ever know. I have been incredibly lucky to have such dedicated friends and mentors.

I would also like to thank the English Department and the Graduate College at Arizona State University, the English Department at Mesa Community College, Arnamagnæan Institute, the University of Copenhagen, the University of Iceland, and the English Department at Truckee Meadows Community College for their support in this endeavour.

During this project, I was afforded many opportunities to travel in Scandinavia. I would like to thank the endless numbers of guides, scholars, archaeologists, and friends who offered support and spent many hours with me as I researched this project.

Books are never a single author's endeavour. The Reference Librarians in the Elizabeth Sturm Library went out of their way to help with this book. Without the efforts of Jennie Allan, Maggie Eirenschmalz, and Laurel Harrison, this book could not have been completed. Dr. Jeff Alexander, Vice President of Academic Affairs at Truckee Meadows Community College and Dean Natalie Russell helped fund research, and LFT also provided additional funding for this project. Special thanks to Erek Lively for his suggestions during the writing process. I also want to thank Connie Skibinski, and Anna Henderson at ARC Humanities Press for their support and guidance through the publishing process. Additionally, I want to thank the anonymous reviewers who provided valuable feedback for revision.

Finally, I would like to thank my family, especially my wife, Shelby, for her love and support during this project.
