

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Foreword: A Tribute to Jonathan Hill David E. Sutton	x
Introducing the Moral of the Story: Transnationalities of Migrant Moral Economies in Betwixt and Between Vytis Čiubrinskas and Nina Glick Schiller	1
PART I. REFRAMING CONCEPTS OF TIME, SPACE AND CAPITAL
Chapter 1 The Twilight of Transnational Migration Studies: Reframing Concepts of Time, Space and Dispossession Nina Glick Schiller	29
PART II. EMBEDDING RECIPROCITY
Chapter 2 The Moral Economy of Transnational Reciprocity: Lithuanian Return Migrants between North America and Europe Vytis Čiubrinskas	57
Chapter 3 Life ‘Here’ and ‘There’ during COVID-19: (Im)mobilities and Transnational Social Ties for Romanians in London Ana-Maria Cîrstea	84
PART III. MIGRATING WOMEN AND SOCIAL POSITIONING
Chapter 4 Transnational Negotiation of Human Dignity: The Case of Polish Migrant Women Working as Cleaners and Care Givers in Chicago Anna Horolets	111

- Chapter 5 Beyond the ‘Strong’ and ‘Weak’ Ties Divide:
Ukrainian Women’s Networks in Transnational
Moral Economies 142
Marta Kindler

PART IV. RETURN AND REMITTANCES

- Chapter 6 Social and Moral Remittances of Diaspora in
Homeland Politics: Two Cases from Hungary 167
Nóra Kovács
- Chapter 7 Are Transnationals ‘Real’ Agents of Change?
An Exploration of How Returnees’
Transnationalism Relates to Their Social Remitting 190
Violetta Parutis and Marta Buler

PART V. MIGRATION AS CRISIS

- Chapter 8 Building Transnational Social Networks in the Aftermath of the Crisis of the Venezuelan
Nation State 225
Jonathan D. Hill and Juan Luis Rodríguez
- Chapter 9 Migration as Crisis: Morality, Epistemology and Transnational Mobility 243
Roberto E. Barrios and Alfredo Danilo Rivera
- Afterword Changing Migration Regimes and Challenges to
Migrants’ Moral Economies 266
Tricia Redeker Hepner

- Index* 271