

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction	1
1. Appointment of Government Officers in Medieval States: The Concerns of Nizam ul-Mulk Tusi and Ziauddin Barani	9
2. Dynastic Change in Northern India: Divergent Approaches to the Exercise of Sovereign Power	36
3. Rulers, Zamindars and Sufis: Probing a Triangular Model of State Formation	60
4. Administrative Consolidation in the Delhi Sultanate: Evidence from a Collection of Letters	84
5. Scientific Temperament and Technical Innovations in North India: From the Eleventh to the Fifteenth Century	110
6. Revolt of Dulla Bhatti against the Mughal State: A Study of Oral Tradition and Modern Cultural Forms	139
7. Travelling Across Northwestern India: The State of Rivers, Bridges and Boats during the Mughal Age	163
8. Political Culture in the Mughal Empire: An Idealistic Vision and the Ground Reality	190
9. A Central Asian Visitor at the Mughal Court: Meetings of Mutribi Samarqandi with Emperor Jahangir	213
10. Pictures of Amazement in Medieval India: Looking into the Works of Mushtaqi, Jahangir and Bhandari	240

11. Historical Dimensions of Islam in South Asia: Modern Writings on Polity, Religion and Culture	263
12. Cultural Ethos of Medieval Panjab: The Pathways of Resistance to the Structures of Dominance	289
13. Caste, Creed and Custom: North Indian Society Towards the Close of the Eighteenth Century	321
14. Celebration of Religious Diversity in Agra: Reading the Observations of Nazir Akbarabadi	348
Index	371