

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Prolegomena	1
Introduction: Suffering, Evil and Durkheimian Sociology: Filling a Gap W.S.F. Pickering and Massimo Rosati	3
Reflections on the Death of Emile Durkheim W.S.F. Pickering	11
I. Suffering and Evil in Durkheim	29
1. Le Suicide and Psychological Suffering Sophie Jankélévitch	31
2. Suffering and Evil in the Elementary Forms Massimo Rosati	49
3. Some Concepts of 'Evil' in Durkheim's Thought Giovanni Paoletti	63
4. Suffering to Become Human: A Durkheimian Perspective Mark S. Cladis	81
II. The Durkheimian Legacy	101
5. Robert Hertz on Suffering and Evil: The Negative Processes of Social Life and Their Resolution Robert Parkin	103
6. Le Malin Génie: Durkheim, Bataille and the Prospect of a Sociology of Evil William Ramp	118
7. Evil and Collective Responsibility: The Durkheimian Legacy and Contemporary Debates Massimo Rosati	136

8. The Hague Tribunal: Critical Reflections Prompted by Durkheim's Remarks on Suffering
John B. Allcock	148
9. Looking Backwards and to the Future
W.S.F. Pickering	163
Notes on Contributors	179
References	181
Index	191