

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	vii
Contributors	ix
List of Abbreviations	xi
Introduction	xiii
The Late Medieval English College in Context
An Institution for all Seasons: The Late Medieval English College Clive Burgess	3
The European Context: Collegiate Churches on the Continent Jerome Bertram	28
Secular Colleges in Late Medieval Scotland Helen Brown	44
Colleges and Monasteries in Late Medieval England Martin Heale	67
The Role of the Late Medieval English College
Patronage in Late Medieval Colleges A. K. McHardy	89
The Collegiate Church as Mausoleum Julian M. Luxford	110
Medieval Colleges and Charity P. H. Cullum	140
The Provision of Books in the English Secular College James Willoughby	154
The Will of John Boraston: Musicians within Collegiate and Parochial Communities Magnus Williamson	180
The Late Medieval English College: Case Studies
The Hospital of St Thomas of Acre of London: The Search for Patronage, Liturgical Improvement, and a School, under Master John Neel, 1420–63 Anne F. Sutton	199

The College as School: the Case of Winchester College Winifred A. Harwood	230
Music and the Reformation in the Collegiate Church of St Mary and All Saints, Fotheringhay David Skinner	253
Index of People and Places	275