

Contents

List of tables and figures	— viii
Transcription conventions	— ix
Morphological gloss conventions	— x
Preface	— xi

Introduction — 1

1	Im/politeness implicatures	— 1
2	Overview of the volume	— 7

Chapter One:

Indirectness and im/politeness — 13

1	Politeness and indirectness	— 13
2	Interpersonal functions of indirectness	— 17
3	Analysing indirectness	— 20
3.1	Indirectness as pragmatic mismatch	— 21
3.2	Indirectness as mitigation	— 30
3.3	Indirectness as social action	— 33
3.4	Indirectness as culturally imbued practice	— 34
4	From indirectness to implicature	— 38

Chapter Two:

Approaches to implicature — 41

1	Gricean and neo-Gricean approaches to implicature	— 42
1.1	Conversational implicatures and normativity	— 43
1.2	Types of Gricean implicature	— 47
1.2.1	Conventional implicature	— 48
1.2.2	Conversational implicature	— 52
1.2.3	Non-conventional, non-conversational implicature	— 60
1.2.4	Types of neo-Gricean implicature	— 62
1.3	Implicatures and cancellability	— 63
2	Post-Gricean approaches to implicature	— 69
2.1	Implicature and defaults	— 69
2.2	Implicature in Relevance theory	— 73
2.2.1	Implicatures as implicitly communicated assumptions	— 74
2.2.2	On differentiating implicatures from explicatures	— 78

Chapter Three:

Implicature, social action and indeterminacy — 86

- 1 Implicature and interaction — 86
- 2 Implicature and social action — 89
- 2.1 Implicature and indirect speech acts — 90
- 2.2 Implicature and intentions — 95
- 2.3 Implicature as social action — 98
- 2.4 Implicature and action ascription — 107
- 3 Implicature and meaning-actions — 111
- 4 Implicature and indeterminacy — 122
- 4.1 Types of indeterminacy — 125
- 4.2 Indeterminacy and accountability — 136

Chapter Four:

Implicature, im/politeness and social practice — 142

- 1 Implicature, relationality and (im)propriety — 143
- 2 Politeness as implicature — 149
- 3 Im/politeness as attitudinal evaluation — 158
- 4 Im/politeness and social practice — 171
- 4.1 Im/politeness and the moral order — 172
- 4.2 Im/politeness and the participation order — 179

Chapter Five:

Situating im/politeness implicatures in interaction — 189

- 1 Im/politeness implicatures as social practice — 190
- 1.1 Im/politeness as occasioned by implicatures — 191
- 1.2 Implicatures as constitutive of im/politeness — 202
- 1.3 Implicatures as occasioned by im/politeness — 210
- 2 Im/politeness implicatures and the temporal-sequential order — 215
- 2.1 Temporality: adjacency, incrementality and emergence — 216
- 2.2 Sequential position and accountability — 224
- 3 Im/politeness implicatures and the socio-inferential order — 229
- 3.1 Default im/politeness implicatures — 230
- 3.2 Nonce im/politeness implicatures — 233
- 4 The pragmatics of im/politeness implicatures — 237

Chapter Six:Politeness implicatures and social action — 240

- 1 Analysing politeness implicatures vis-à-vis social action — 240
- 2 Attenuating and withholding — 247
- 3 Pre-empting — 257
- 4 Soliciting — 262
- 5 Disattending — 268
- 6 Doing delicacy — 272

Chapter Seven:Impoliteness implicatures and offence — 278

- 1 Implicating negative assessments — 280
- 2 Registering and sanctioning offence — 286
- 3 Mock impoliteness implicatures and relationality — 292
- 4 Disputing implicated offence — 300

Chapter Eight:Conclusion — 307

- 1 Im/politeness implicatures, social action and social practice — 307
- 2 Theoretical implications — 313
- 2.1 Implications for theorising implicature — 313
- 2.2 Implications for theorising im/politeness — 317
- 3 Towards an interactional pragmatics — 320

References — 323Index — 353