

Contents

|                    |   |
|--------------------|---|
| Introduction ..... | 1 |
|--------------------|---|

(I) Understanding

Günter Zöller

|                                                                             |   |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|
| Philosophizing Under the Influence –Schopenhauer's Indian Thought ..... | 9 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|

Ram Nath Jha

|                                                              |    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| The Upaniṣads – Schopenhauer's Solace of Life and Death .... | 19 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|----|

Michael Gerhard

|                                                             |    |
|-------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Suspected of Buddhism – Śaṅkara, Dārāṣekoh and Schopenhauer | 31 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------|----|

Thomas Regehly

|                                                                                                                |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| “The Ancient Rhapsodies of Truth” –Arthur Schopenhauer, Friedrich Max Müllerand the Hermeneutics ..... | 63 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|

(II) Philosophemes

Margit Ruffing

|                                                                                                                                                |    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| The Overcoming of the Individual in Schopenhauer's Ethicsof Compassion, Illustrated by the Sanskrit Formulaof the ‘tat tvam asi’ ..... | 97 |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|

Matthias Koßler

|                                                                                                                                            |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Relationship between Will and Intellectin Schopenhauer with Particular Regard to His Useof the Expression “Veil of māyā” ..... | 109 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|

Raj Kumar Gupta

|                                                                             |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Indian Context of Schopenhauer's 'Holy Man'or 'Beautifu Soul' ..... | 119 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|

Ankur Barua

|                                                                |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| All Is Suffering – Reexamining the Logic of 'Indian Pessimism' | 129 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|-----|

Jens Lemanski

|                                                                                                                         |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Denial of the Will-to-Live in Schopenhauer's Worldand His Association between Buddhist and Christian Saints ... | 149 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|

(III) Philosophers

Indu Sarin

|                                                                                  |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Transcending Egoism through Moral Praxis –Schopenhauer and Vivekānanda ..... | 187 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|

Ramesh Chandra Pradhan

|                                                                                    |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Schopenhauer, Wittgenstein and Indian Philosophy:Some Forgotten Linkages ..... | 201 |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|

(IV) Literature

Sitansu Ray

|                                                       |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Schopenhauer and Tagore on the Key to Dreamland ..... | 215 |
|-------------------------------------------------------|-----|

|                    |     |
|--------------------|-----|
| Bibliography ..... | 233 |
|--------------------|-----|

|                    |     |
|--------------------|-----|
| Contributors ..... | 245 |
|--------------------|-----|

|                    |     |
|--------------------|-----|
| Author Index ..... | 247 |
|--------------------|-----|

|                     |     |
|---------------------|-----|
| Subject Index ..... | 251 |
|---------------------|-----|