

Table of Contents

Leif Dahlberg Introduction. Visualising Law and Authority	1
PART 1. TOWARDS A LEGAL AESTHETICS
Martin A. Kayman “Iconic” Texts of Law and Religion: A Tale of Two Decalogues	13
Gary Watt Law Suits: Clothing as the Image of Law	23
PART 2. IMAGES OF LAW AND AUTHORITY
Paul Raffield Law and the Equivocal Image: Sacred and Profane in Royal Portraiture	51
Sidia Fiorato Mise en scène and subversion of political power through dance: Sir Kenneth MacMillan’s Romeo and Juliet	74
Leif Dahlberg Mapping the Law of Stockholm. Reading Old Maps of Stockholm as Representing and Constituting Judicial Space	92
Elina Druker Mapping absence. Maps as meta-artistic discourse in literature	114
Chiara Battisti Iconology of Law and Dis-Order in the Television Series Law & Order Special Victims Unit	126
PART 3. LAW AND AUTHORITY IN ART
Ari Hirvonen Body Politics. Normative Gaze, Carnal Intimacy and Touching Pain in Vanessa Beecroft’s Art	141

Christine Poggi

Mirroring the Law: Michelangelo Pistoletto, Santiago Sierra,
Tehching Hsieh, and Chantal Akerman 164

Max Liljefors

Body and Authority in Contemporary Art: Tehching Hsieh's
One-Year Performances 204

Karen-Margrethe Simonsen

Global Panopticism. On the Eye of Power in Modern Surveillance
Society and Post-Orwellian Self-Surveillance and Sousveillance-
Strategies in Modern Art 232

PART 4. THE AUTHORITY OF THE IMAGE IN LAW

Daniela Carpi

Crime Evidence: 'Simulacres et Simulations', Photography as Forensic Evidence 253

Richard K. Sherwin

Constitutional Purgatory: Shades and Presences Inside
the Courtroom 266

List of Images 292

Name Index 299

Subject Index 302