

Inhaltsverzeichnis

Editors' Foreword — V

Foreword — VII

I	Historical Survey — 1
1	Introduction — 1
2	Diocletian (284–305) and Constantine (306–337) — 4
2.1	The Third-Century Crisis and the Tetrarchy — 4
2.2	The Emergence of Constantine — 10
2.3	Military Reform — 15
2.4	Towns and Villas — 17
3	The House of Constantine and the Development of the Church — 19
3.1	Constantius II (337–361) — 19
3.2	The Theological Crisis — 22
3.3	Asceticism — 23
3.4	Julian (361–3) — 25
3.5	Valentinian I (364–375) — 27
3.6	Valens (364–378) — 28
4	The failure of the House of Valentinian — 30
4.1	The Goths before 376 — 30
4.2	The Hunnic Threat — 31
4.3	The Gothic Crossing of the Danube (376) — 32
4.4	Restoration under Theodosius I (379–395) — 36
5	The Consolidation of the Church — 38
5.1	The Council of Constantinople 381 — 38
5.2	Ambrose (374–397), Gratian (367–383), Magnus Maximus (383–388), and Theodosius I (379–395) — 40
5.3	Damasus (366–384) — 42
5.4	Two Fathers of the Latin Church: Jerome (d. 420) and Augustine (354–430) — 45
5.5	The Church Historians — 47
5.6	The Poets: Prudentius (348–post 405) — 49
6	Secular Culture — 50
6.1	Rhetoric and Panegyric — 50

	6.2	Letters — 53
	6.3	The Secular Historians — 56
7		The Sack of Rome and the First Barbarian Settlements — 58
	7.1	Stilicho (d. 408) — 58
	7.2	The Year 406 — 59
	7.3	The Year 410 — 61
	7.4	The Years 418/419 — 64
	7.5	The Literary Response: Rutilius Namatianus and Paulinus of Pella — 66
8		The Political Failures of the Fifth Century — 70
	8.1	Success and Failure in Spain — 70
	8.2	The Vandal Crossing to Africa — 71
	8.3	Success and Failure in Britain — 73
	8.4	Emperors and magistri militum — 75
	8.5	Attila (d. 453) — 78
	8.6	The Last Western Emperors — 81
	8.7	The End of the Western Empire — 84
	8.8	Life in the Failing West — 85
9		The Development of Christian Society — 87
	9.1	Theological Conflict in the Fifth-century West — 87
	9.2	The Councils of Ephesus and Chalcedon — 89
	9.3	The Spread of Monasticism in the West — 91
	9.4	Bishops and Priests — 95
	9.5	The Cult of Saints — 99
10		A Roman Commonwealth in the West — 100
	10.1	Odoacer (d. 493) — 100
	10.2	The Gibichungs — 102
	10.3	Ostrogoths — 104
	10.4	Visigoths and Sueves — 107
	10.5	Vandals — 109
	10.6	Franks — 112
	10.7	Britons and Anglo-Saxons — 115
11		The Continuance of Roman Culture — 118
	11.1	Friendship Letters after Sidonius — 118
	11.2	Ostrogothic Italy — 119
	11.3	Vandal Africa — 121
	11.4	Historical Writing in the Sixth-century West — 122

- 12 The Failure of the Commonwealth — 125
 - 12.1 Justinian's Interventions: Vandal Africa — 125
 - 12.2 Justinian's Interventions: The Impact on Italy, 526–568 — 128
 - 12.3 The Arrival of the Lombards — 130
 - 12.4 Justinian's Interventions: The Impact on Spain — 131
- 13 The Environmental Crisis of the 530s — 133
 - 13.1 Environmental Problems — 133
 - 13.2 The Volcanic Winters of 535/6 and 539/40 and the Coming of the Plague — 135
 - 13.3 The Absence of Economic Revival — 137
- 14 The Successor States — 139
 - 14.1 Byzantium, Africa, and Italy after the Death of Justinian — 139
 - 14.2 Spain after Justinian — 141
 - 14.3 The Merovingians and Byzantium — 144
 - 14.4 The Roman Ideology of the Successor States — 146
 - 14.5 The civitas and the Merovingian Teilreiche — 149
 - 14.6 The Erosion of the Distinction Between Military and Civilian — 151
- 15 The Triumph of the Church — 153
 - 15.1 The Failure of the Empire — 153
 - 15.2 The Formation of 'the Church' — 154
 - 15.3 Quantifying the Change — 156
 - 15.4 A New Mentality — 159
 - 15.5 The Church and Social Crisis — 161

II State of the Art — 163

- 1 Introduction: Late Antiquity — 163
- 2 The Development of Historiography on the Early Middle Ages before 1970 — 165
- 3 General Assessments of the Late Antique Period from 1970 to the Present — 174
- 4 The Fourth-century Emperors and their Reigns — 178
 - 4.1 The Third-Century Crisis and the Tetrarchy — 178
 - 4.2 Constantine — 182

4.3	The House of Constantine —	185
4.4	Julian —	188
4.5	Valentinian, Valens, Gratian and Valentinian II —	188
5	From Theodosius I to the Deposition of Romulus Augustulus —	190
5.1	Theodosius I —	190
5.2	Honorius —	192
5.3	Valentinian III —	194
5.4	The Last Western Emperors —	195
5.5	The Year 476 —	196
6	Government and Law —	197
7	The Western Church in the Late Fourth and Fifth Centuries —	200
8	Late Roman Secular Culture —	209
9	Economy and Society —	212
10	Regional History —	215
11	The Barbarians —	220
11.1	Relations with Rome Before the Barbarian Settlements —	225
11.2	Barbarian Numbers and Destructions —	227
11.3	Huns —	228
11.4	Settlement —	229
12	The Successor States —	229
12.1	General Comments —	229
12.2	Odoacer —	232
12.3	Visigoths —	233
12.4	Vandals —	234
12.5	Alans and Sueves —	236
12.6	Alamans —	236
12.7	Franks —	237
12.8	Burgundians —	239
12.9	Ostrogoths —	240
12.10	Anglo-Saxons —	242
12.11	Lombards —	244
12.12	Avars —	245
13	The Non-theological Culture of the Sixth-century West —	245
14	The Western Church in the Sixth century —	248
14.1	General —	248

14.2	The Structure of the Sixth-century Church — 249
14.3	Doctrine — 251
14.4	The Cult of the Saints — 252
14.5	Monasticism — 254
III	Bibliography — 257
1	Introduction: Late Antiquity — 257
1.1	Handbooks, Source Collections, Book Series, and Periodicals — 257
1.2	Individual Works — 257
2	The Development of Early Medieval Historiography Before 1970 — 259
3	General Assessments of the Late Antique Period from 1970 to the Present — 262
4	The fourth-century emperors and their reigns — 264
4.1	The Third-Century Crisis and the Tetrarchy — 264
4.2	Constantine — 267
4.3	The House of Constantine — 269
4.4	Julian — 270
4.5	Valentinian, Valens, Gratian and Valentinian II — 271
5	From Theodosius to the Deposition of Romulus Augustulus — 272
5.1	Theodosius — 272
5.2	Honorius — 273
5.3	Valentinian III — 274
5.4	The Last Emperors — 275
5.5	The Year 476 — 275
6	Imperial Government and Law — 276
7	The Western Church in the Late Fourth and Fifth Centuries — 278
8	Late Roman Secular Culture — 284
9	Economy and Society — 286
10	Regional History — 289
11	The Barbarians — 292
11.1	Relations with Rome Before the Barbarian Settlements — 294
11.2	Barbarian Numbers and Destruction — 296

	11.3	Huns — 296
	11.4	Settlement — 297
12		The Successor States — 297
	12.1	General Comments — 297
	12.2	Odoacer — 299
	12.3	Visigoths — 300
	12.4	Vandals — 301
	12.5	Alans and Sueves — 302
	12.6	Alamans — 303
	12.7	Franks — 304
	12.8	Burgundians — 305
	12.9	Ostrogoths — 306
	12.10	Anglo-Saxons — 308
	12.11	Lombards — 309
	12.12	Avars — 309
13		The Non-theological Culture of the Sixth-century West — 310
14		The Western Church in the Sixth Century — 312
	14.1	General — 312
	14.2	The Structure of the Sixth-century Church — 312
	14.3	Doctrine — 314
	14.4	The Cult of the Saints — 315
	14.5	Monasticism — 317
15		Sources — 318
	15.1	General Source Collections — 318
	15.2	Sources for Church History — 319
	15.3	Sources on the Barbarians — 320
	15.4	Greek, Roman and Post-Roman Legal Texts — 320
	15.5	Inscriptions, Papyri and Manuscripts — 321
	15.6	Coinage and Coin Collections — 321
	15.7	Individual Authors — 322

Maps — 364

Index of Authors — 370

Index of People — 373

Index of Places — 382

Subject Index — 385

Oldenbourg Grundriss der Geschichte — 389