

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The majority of the texts collected in this volume were presented at a conference organized at the Kunsthistorisches Institut in Florenz – Max-Planck-Institut in 2013. We would like to express our sincere gratitude to all of the authors, not only for their fascinating essays, but also for their continued collaboration and for their patience during the long publication process that at times made it difficult to include references to the most recent literature. However, there is a timeliness to the articles that is certainly not only connected to the timelessness of the topic of the Announcement. Our special thanks go to Nurith Aviv, who was so generous to allow the publication of her original film script Annonces: Readers of this volume will thus also have concrete insights into the artistic reflection on and transformation of the topic. Last but not least, we would like to thank Valerio Aparo, Franziska Lampe and Katharine Stahlbuhk for their precious help in finalizing the volume, as well as the publishing house – especially Kerstin Protz, Katja Richter and Imke Wartenberg – for the open-minded and pleasant collaboration.
