

Contents

About IFLA — VII

Karen Latimer

Introduction — 1

Approaches to Post-Occupancy Evaluation of Libraries

Charles Forrest and Sharon L. Bostick

- 1 Welcoming, flexible, and state of the art
Approaches to Continuous Facility Management — 9

Anette Franzkowiak

- 2 Working with focus groups as a part of a post-occupancy evaluation (POE) at the German National Library of Science and Technology / University Library Hannover (TIB/UB) — 28

Mercè Millán, Ester Omella and Assun Viladrich

- 3 How to improve existing library buildings after evaluation — 51

Architects on Library POEs

Santi Romero

- 4 Post-occupancy evaluation of ten public libraries in Barcelona Province
When architectural advice ends up being of real value — 83

Koli Chen

- 5 A Review of post-occupancy evaluation of libraries in Taiwan from the perspective of the architecture profession — 98

Jeffrey A. Scherer

- 6 Post-occupancy evaluation: Fayetteville Public Library — 105

POE Case Studies: Different Time Frames

Dorothea Sommer

- 7 The Law Library of Martin Luther University Halle-Wittenberg, Germany revisited — 129

Klaus Ulrich Werner

- 8 The “Berlin Brain”

Evaluating an architectural masterpiece of 2005 based on a library concept from the last millennium — 147

Karen Latimer

- 9 The McClay Library at Queen’s University Belfast

Evaluation five years on — 161

Kaisa Sinikara and Anna-Maija Lukkari

- 10 A case study on a post-occupancy evaluation of the new Helsinki University Main Library — 175

Appendix: Post-Occupancy Evaluation Questionnaire in English, French, German, and Spanish

Questionnaire about library buildings: characteristics – operation – evaluation — 195

Questionnaire sur les bâtiments de bibliothèques: caractéristiques – fonctionnement – évaluation — 207

Fragenkatalog zu Bibliotheksgebäuden: Kennzeichen – Betrieb – Evaluation — 220

Cuestionario sobre edificios de biblioteca: características – uso – evaluación — 233

Contributors — 246