

Table of Contents

List of Tables and Figures — X

List of Abbreviations — XI

Preface — XV

1	From Peace Propaganda to Information Intervention — 1
1.1	Information Intervention in History — 2
1.2	Metztl's Concept of Information Intervention: Clearing Conceptual Landscapes — 3
1.3	Reactionary and Developmental Information Intervention — 6
1.4	"Phase II" Information Intervention in the DRC — 9
2	A Foucauldian View of UN Information Intervention — 11
3	The Liberal Institutional Foundations of Post-Cold War UN Information Operations — 15
4	Between Propaganda and UN's Public Information Operations — 22
4.1	The UN "Propaganda" Doctrine — 23
4.2	Outsourcing "Peace Propaganda": UN Partnership with NGOs — 24
5	A Brief History of Ethnicity, Conflicts and Crisis of Citizenship in the DRC — 25
5.1	The Roots, Tactics and Ethnic Motivations of the "First DRC War" — 25
5.2	Rwandan Roots of the Congolese Conflict — 26
5.3	The FDLR — 29
5.4	South Kivu: Autochtonie and the Crises of Citizenship — 30
5.5	Brief Notes on Key Flash Points in the DRC — 32
6	From Authenticity to Governmentality: A Brief History of the Media in the DRC — 35
6.1	Era of the "Authentic" Media — 35
6.2	Era of Débrouillez-vous (1990–1997) — 44
6.3	Era of Official Silence, Repression and Coupage (1997–2001) — 49
6.4	Era of Intervention and Governmentality (2001–) — 59
7	Radio Okapi: The Making of a "Congolese Voice" — 67
7.1	Creation of Radio Okapi: The IGO/NGO Mix — 67
7.2	Mandate and Funding — 70

7.3	Challenges —	70
7.4	Sustainability—	71
7.5	News and Information Programmes —	72
8	Information Operations: Contents and Metrics of Effectiveness —	74
8.1	Between Dialogue and Gutahuka: Streamlining the Debates —	75
8.2	Ethical Foundations of Hirondelle Foundation's Approach —	77
8.3	Conceptualizing Hirondelle Foundation's "Informative Approach" in Conflict Zones —	78
8.4	MONUC's Approach to DDRRR —	84
8.5	Gutahuka Soft Follow-up Actions —	91
8.6	Research Impacts of Communication Interventions —	94
8.7	Ontological Foundations of Public Information Research Design —	96
8.8	Sampling Design —	97
8.9	Sampling Groups —	99
8.10	Summary of Procedure —	100
8.11	Ethical Considerations —	106
8.12	Networks and Contexts of Research: Defining the Mixes —	107
8.13	Order of Focus Group Discussion and Moderator Guide —	112
8.14	Specific Topics for Discussion —	114
9	Local Meanings and Perceptions of UN Information Interventions Programmes —	116
9.1	Radio Listening in South Kivu —	116
9.2	Re-Stating Purpose of Research —	117
9.3	Purpose as per Ethnic and Listening Groups —	118
9.4	Focus Group Participants —	120
9.5	Focus Group Design —	120
9.6	Focus Group Plan and Organization —	121
9.7	Question Design —	122
9.8	Framework for Data Analysis —	124
9.9	Analysis of Focus Group Discussions —	126
10	No Intention to Return to Rwanda —	160
10.1	Defining Determinants of Planned Behaviour —	162
10.2	Hutu Participants' Attitude towards Repatriation to Rwanda —	163
10.3	Emerging Issues —	173
11	Impacts of Dialogue Entre Congolais —	176
11.1	Topical Issues Treated in Dialogue —	176
11.2	Discussion of Dialogue Listeners' Perceptions of Descriptive Transformations —	178
11.3	Process of Perception Change in Dialogue Groups —	185

12	“Hutus are the ones that have kept us where we are today”: When Psyops Backfire — 189
12.1	Contending Realities in Narrative Frameworks of Dialogue and Gutahuka — 192
13	Revisiting Unfinished Debates on Information Intervention — 194
13.1	Final Word — 198
13.2	End Note: Reflections of an Outsider Researcher — 202
Appendix 1 — 205
Appendix 2 — 207
Bibliography — 210	