

Contents

Preface — V

Megan Maruschke and Matthias Middell

- 1 Explaining Revolutionary Upheaval: From Internal Societal Developments to Global Processes of Respatialization — 1

Part I: Expanding the Scope of the French Revolution

Manuel Covo

- 2 Why did France want Louisiana Back? Imperial Schemes, Political Economy, and Revolutionary Ventures in a Caribbean Borderland — 23

Damien Tricoire

- 3 The French Revolution as a Period of Territorialization of the Colonial Empire? A Southern Indian Ocean Perspective — 47

Jane Landers

- 4 Black Rebels and Royal Auxiliaries Before, During, and After the French Revolution — 63

Part II: The Impact of the French Revolution

Christian Ayne Crouch

- 5 The French Revolution in Indian Country: Reconsidering the Reach and Place of Atlantic Upheaval — 85

Ernesto Bassi

- 6 Mobility, Circulation, Spatial Configurations, and Respatialization in the Wake of the Haitian Revolution: A View from New Granada's Shores — 107

José Damião Rodrigues

7 Islands in Turmoil:

The Azores during the Atlantic Revolutionary Cycle — 129

Antonis Hadjikyriacou

8 The Respatialization of Cypriot Insularity during the Age of Revolutions — 149

Part III: The New Spatial Organization of Societies

Alan Forrest

9 The Reorganization of Administrative Space in France and its Colonies — 169

Andreas Fahrmeir

10 (Re)spatialization and its Limits: Territory and Descent, Ideology and Pragmatism in Definitions of Citizenship — 189

Laura di Fiore

11 The Respatialization of Italy between French Republics and Napoleonic Domination — 203

Federica Morelli

12 From Empire to Republics: The Collapse of the Spanish Monarchy and the Respatialization of America — 223

Authors — 241

Index — 245