Acknowledgements

The co-editors would like to thank a number of individuals and organizations who helped to make this volume possible. In October 2018, we were honored to serve as the wissenschaftliche Leitung of the Internationaler Kongress in Naumburg, under the title "Ohne Zukunft, ohne Erinnerungen, so sitze ich hier': Friedrich Nietzsche zwischen Geschichte und Gedächtnis." With more than sixty presenters representing a myriad of philosophical traditions and hailing from more than a dozen countries, this Jahrestagung was a truly collaborative and international achievement. The papers selected for this volume were chosen for their scholarly excellence and for the thematic unity of the volume, though unfortunately many quite fine presentations from the conference had to be omitted. The co-editors would accordingly like to thank all of the conference participants who made the conference a great success and this volume possible.

As this congress was held under the auspices of the Friedrich-Nietzsche-Stiftung and the Nietzsche-Gesellschaft e.V., sincere gratitude is due to these societies and to the members of their scientific boards: Christian Benne, Marco Brusotti, Helmut Heit, Enrico Müller, Renate Reschke, Corinna Schubert and Andreas Urs Sommer. Since the physical location of the congress was the Nietzsche-Dokumentationszentrum and the Nietzschehaus in Naumburg, special thanks goes to Dr. Ralf Eichberg and his staff for their excellent organization and leadership.

After the conference, the production of this volume was greatly aided by Christoph Schirmer and his team at Walter de Gruyter, especially Anne Hiller, who assisted us with great care in all steps of this publication. It goes without saying that the publication of a book requires the talents not just of authors but also of copy-editors, translators, and a robust publishing house in order to turn ideas into a physical product. We feel very fortunate to have had the chance to work with DeGruyter and hope to repay their publication efforts in the coin of scholarly excellence.

Anthony Jensen would like to thank his family – the Bohats, Kelseys, and Jensens – for their untiring support. To Danielle Cassidy, I am grateful for your encouragement and for allowing me the time apart to pursue my career even if sometimes on the other side of the world. To the administration at Providence College, especially to Hugh Lena, Sheila Adamus-Liotta, Joan Branham, Ben Yost, and John Abbruzzese, I am grateful for research support and for a sabbatical leave in order to complete my own contribution to this volume. I would like to thank, too, two invaluable student assistants for their editorial help: Santanna Rocha and Grace Sneesby.

Carlotta Santini would like to thank all her colleagues from the Vorstand of the Nietzsche Gesellschaft and especially Ralf Eichberg and his collaborator Susanne Rettenwander together with all participants to the 2018 Jahrestagung for their support and their great effort in contributing to the scientific excellence of this conference. The conception of this conference emerged as part of a project of the Alexander von Humboldt Stiftung on "Philology and Memory". I would therefore like to thank the Stiftung for its two-year support and Prof. Guenter Abel of the Technische Universitaet Berlin for hosting the project.
