Acknowledgments

This volume is the result of the valuable contribution of many people. First and foremost, we would like to thank Vivian Liska for her kind support and the generous invitation to publish this volume in her book series "Perspectives on Jewish Texts and Contexts." Some of the chapters in the volume originated in a conference on Jewish heresy that took place in Tel Aviv in May 2019. We thank the Minerva Institute for German History, the School of Philosophy, Linguistics, and Social Sciences, and the Stephen Roth Institute for the Study of Contemporary Antisemitism and Racism at Tel Aviv University for co-sponsoring the event. We also thank the Stephen Roth Institute for the Study of Contemporary Antisemitism and Racism at Tel Aviv University and the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada for their support with the preparation of the manuscript for publication. We also would like to thank Andrew Melvin and Marlo Burks for their outstanding copyediting. Lastly, we are grateful to Katja Lehming and Ulrike Krauss of De Gruyter Press for their help and guidance throughout the production of this volume.
