

Contents

On the Series — V

Steffi Marung

- 1 Between Empirical Messiness and Theoretical Ambition: Introducing Interdisciplinary Conversations on Actors and Practices of Space-Making Under the Global Condition — 1

Gabriele Pisarz-Ramirez

- 2 “Through Impenetrable Thicket and Swamps”: Negotiating US National Space in Popular Narratives about the Florida Frontier — 17

Stephan Rindlisbacher

- 3 National Forms with Economic Content? Gosplan’s Expertise on Territorializing the Soviet State, 1921–1930 — 39

Hanna Rössner

- 4 Tracing Female Spatial Entrepreneurs: SWAPO Women’s Council, the Democratic Women’s Union, and Their Women’s Sewing Centre in Tsumeb, Namibia, 1990–1992 — 59

Srividya Balasubramanian

- 5 Routinizing Digital Banking: Kiosks as New Spaces of Social Action in Contemporary India — 91

Pascal Goeke and Evelyn Moser

- 6 Rockefeller Foundation’s 100 Resilient Cities Programme: Principles of the Art of Organizing Socioecological Transformation by Philanthropic Means — 113

Katharina P. W. Döring and Jens Herpolsheimer

- 7 Understanding Complex, Collective Actors at African Regional Organizations: AU and ECOWAS Intervention in The Gambia — 137

Frank Meyer and Judith Miggelbrink

8 Scaled Regulatory Regimes under the Global Condition: An Example from Organ Transplantation — 159

List of Abbreviations — 185

List of Contributors — 187

Index — 191