

Contents

Carsten Schapkow and Frank Jacob

1 Introduction — 1

Jan-Werner Müller

2 The Politics of Fear Revisited — 11

Section 1: Consequences of Nationalism and Populism

Frank Jacob

3 The Decline of the Occident: A Traditional Narrative of Nationalist Populism — 25

Oleg Kashirskikh and Katerina Tsetsura

4 Populism in Russian Political Discourse — 47

Mitterand M. Okorie

5 Populism in the ANC and the 2019 Xenophobic Violence in South Africa — 71

Section 2: Strategies of Nationalism and Populism

Maximilian Kreter

6 “We are the streets and we are the law, the 4th Reich is what we are fighting for.” Four Decades of White Power Music in Germany: A Historical-Sociological Reconstruction — 99

Vladimír Naxera

7 The Germans as a Threat to ‘Us’? The Use of History and Othering of Germans in the Speeches of the Czech President Miloš Zeman — 135

Armin Langer

8 Dog-Whistle Politics as a Strategy of American Nationalists and Populists: George Soros, the Rothschilds, and Other Conspiracy Theories — 157

Section 3: Identity Questions in the 21st Century

Steinar Aas

9 Nationalism, Populism, and Norwegian Historiography — 191

Murat Iplikci

10 For the Sake of His Country: Henry Luce's Nationalist-Populist
Crusade to Forge "The American Century" — 211

Jonah Roberson

11 Catholicism, Polish Victimhood, and Nationalist Histories in Partitioned and Contemporary Poland — 235

Bjørn P. Müller-Bohn

12 Populist Politics and the Rise of the AfD in Germany — 253

Britt Leake

13 The Positive Role of Islam in Indian History and Nehru's
The Discovery of India — 275

14 Contributors — 299