

Acknowledgement

For Karen, Camden, Michelle, and our whole family. Thank you for being you and living in loving partnership together, especially in the hard moments, the easy moments, and the fleeting moments. You inspire me more than I can put into words, so I can only wish that my tears and my smiles are felt and carried forward with you. I love you and may our paths be lit with joy and an ever-changing spectrum of thoughts, emotions, sensations, and experiences.

Also to Guy St. Clair, the De Gruyter team, Donita Volkwijn, David Gurteen, and Todd Griffin for your heartwarming support in writing, editing, and publishing this book. The words and sentiments in the following pages may need to be updated over time, but the felt sense of our conversations and our relationships is a treasure to behold.

And to the thousands and thousands of names of people that I wish I could list, including Stan Garfield, Rocio Sanz, Dr. Sharon Varney, Derek Bostic, Dr. Mee Yan Cheung Judge, Dr. Brenda B.
