

Acknowledgments

The authors thank the European Association for Social Anthropologists (EASA) for funding the collaborative workshop between the Energy Anthropology Network and the Futures Anthropology Network in June 2019. We are grateful to the ENTPE, l'école d'aménagement durable des territoires and the Laboratoire Aménagement Economie Transports at the University of Lyon for hosting the workshop at which the ideas for this book were developed. We would like to acknowledge Charlotte Johnson, Oriane Manigault, Gabriela Cobana and Nicolas Nova who participated in the workshop for their contributions. Finally, we thank our editors at De Gruyter for their enthusiasm for this book and their support during its preparation.
