

Contents

INTRODUCTION .....	7
CHAPTER 1. LANGUAGE IN SOCIETY .....	13
Social reality, p. 16; Social transactions, p. 19; Grammar and the reification of knowledge, p. 21; Grammatical fit, p. 23; Social grammar and traditional grammar: the 'is' approach, p. 30; the 'does' approach, p. 31; Ambiguity, the written word and transformational grammar, p. 32; Ambiguity, p. 39; Grammar as forms, p. 48.
CHAPTER 2. SOCIAL GRAMMAR OF LANGUAGE .....	53
Part 1: Some aspects of the growth of language, p. 53
Part 2: Status, solidarity and emotion, p. 59
Status, p. 60; Solidarity, p. 68; Emotion, p. 70; Summary, p. 73
Part 3: Social categories of grammar, p. 75
CHAPTER 3. SOCIAL INFORMATION CARRIERS .....	93
Contradiction of meaning, p. 95; Social function of I.S., p. 96; The emotional function of I.S., p. 98; The same discussion with three West African languages, p. 106: (1) Yoruba, p. 107; (2) Nupe, p. 111; (3) Ibo (Igbo), p. 113; Discussion, p. 114.
CHAPTER 4. SUMMARY: ANSWERS AND IMPLICATIONS .....	118
Answers, p. 121; Implications: (1) Social grammar, p. 122; (2) Sociolinguistics, p. 124; (3) Language development, p. 125; (4) Language teaching, p. 127; Conclusion, p. 131.
REFERENCES .....	132

