

Contents

Part I

The Culture and Power of Knowledge in Modern Society

Nico Stehr and Richard V. Ericson	3
Introduction	3
I. Knowledge Societies	4
II. Theories of Modern Society	7
III. Toward a Sociological Concept of Knowledge	9
IV. Researchable Issues	13
Notes	15
References	16

Part II

Theoretical Perspectives

Introduction	23
------------------------	----

A Critical View of Modernity

Alain Touraine	29
--------------------------	----

The Techno-structures of Society

Gernot Böhme	39
I. Introduction	39
II. Technology as the Self-preservation of Society.	40
III. The Technical Object and the Techno-structure.	42
IV. Technical Socialization and Release	44
V. Society and Generation.	47
VI. Concluding Remarks	47
Notes	48
References	49

Some Observations on "Post-modern" Society

S. N. Eisenstadt	51
----------------------------	----

The Idols of Technology

William Leiss	61
I. Bacon's Idols	62
II. A Modern Idolatry	63
III. Bacon's Wager	65
IV. The Century of Environmental Crisis	66
V. Appendix: Issues in the Perception of Environmental Risks	68
Notes	70
References	71

Part III

Knowledge, Experts and Expertise

Introduction	75
------------------------	----

Life-world and Expertise: Social Production of Dependency

Zygmunt Bauman.	81
I. Existential Foundations of Expertise.	83
II. Redeployment of Skills	88
III. Self-reproduction of Expertise	91
IV. Marketing the Expertise	96
V. The Tendencies and Limits of Expert-Designed Life World	100
Notes	105
References	105

Experts, Counsellors and Advisers

Nico Stehr	107
I. Knowledge and Expertise	108
II. The Knowledge Society	111
III. Intellectuals and Experts	123
IV. Institutions and Expertise	133
V. Conditions for the Growth of Experts	135
VI. The Functions of Expertise	140
VII. Conclusion	142
Notes	143
References	145

Knowledge as Product and Property

Steve Fuller	157
I. The Interchangeability of Knowledge and Power	159
II. Embodying Knowledge as Professional Power	162
III. From Knowledge Product to Intellectual Property	164
IV. Conferring Validity and Value on Intellectual Property	166
V. Is the Market for Knowledge Saturated or Depressed?	174
Notes	176
References	186

Part IV

Science and Technology as Social Risks

Introduction	193
------------------------	-----

Modern Society as a Risk Society

Ulrich Beck	199
I. The Paradigm of the Risk-society	199
II. Risks of Modernization – Five Theses	201
III. First Thesis: Knowledge is Dependent on Modernization Risks	202
IV. Second Thesis: Modernization Risks Exploding the Class-structure	204
V. Third Thesis: On the Market Form of Modernization Risks	207
VI. Fourth Thesis: Consciousness Determines Being, Knowledge of Risks and Levels of Effect of Risks	208
VII. Fifth Thesis: The Risk-society Engenders the Political Potential for a Dirigiste Politics of the State of Emergency	213
Note	214

Science as a Societal Risk Producer

Uwe Schimank	215
I The General Intersystemic Dynamics of Scientific Risk Production	217
II Some Institutional Determinants of the Societal Risk Potential of Research Behavior	222
Notes	228
References	229

Social Conflicts about the Definition of Risks: The Role of Science

Christoph Lau	235
-------------------------	-----

I. Traditional Risks	236
II. Industrial Risks.....	237
III. New Technological Risks.....	238
IV. New Risks and Societal Conflicts.....	240
V. Science and Public Conflicts About Risks	242
VI. Some Typical Strategies of Risk Definition.....	244
References	246

Part V

The Economic Structure of Knowledge Societies

Introduction	251
--------------------	-----

The Changed World Economy

Peter F. Drucker.....	257
Notes	276
References	276

Global Change and Economic Policy

Richard G. Lipsey	279
I. The World of 1950	279
II. The Shift to the New Order	284
III. The World of 1990	286
IV. Economic Policy in Transition	293
V. Conclusion	297
Notes	297
References	298

Learning and the Economy

Judith Marquand	301
I. Introduction	301
II. The Economists' View of Human Capital.....	302
III. Knowledge, Competence and General Skills	305
IV. The Learning Process and the Learning Cycle	307
V. Learning and Innovation.....	309
VI. Learning and Economics	310
VII. Learning and the Economy.....	312
References	313

Part VI

Empirical Analysis of Knowledge Production and its Social Consequences

Introduction	317
------------------------	-----

Scientific Evidence and the Regulation of Technical Risks: Twenty Years of Demythologizing the Experts

Wolfgang van den Daele	323
----------------------------------	-----

I. Professional Analysis vs. Political Bargaining	324
---	-----

II. "We Do Not Know Enough!"	325
--	-----

III. "You Never Know Enough"	329
--	-----

IV. The Professional Appropriation of Risk Controversies	332
--	-----

V. The Limits and Relevance of Professional Mandate in the Regulation of Risk	334
--	-----

References	338
----------------------	-----

Expertise as a Network: A Case Study of the Controversies over the Environmental Release of Genetically Engineered Organisms

Alberto Cambrosio, Camille Limoges and Eric Hoffman	341
---	-----

I. Introduction	341
---------------------------	-----

II. Analyzing "Expertise"	342
-------------------------------------	-----

III. The Debate over Genetically Engineered Microorganisms (GEMS) . .	346
---	-----

IV. Concluding remarks	355
----------------------------------	-----

Notes	356
-----------------	-----

References	358
----------------------	-----

Expert Advice and Pragmatic Rationality

Arie Rip	363
--------------------	-----

I. The Ozone Layer Debate	365
-------------------------------------	-----

II. Standards for Dioxin in the Netherlands	370
---	-----

III. Conclusion	374
---------------------------	-----

Notes	376
-----------------	-----

References	378
----------------------	-----

On the Authors	381
--------------------------	-----

Name Index	385
----------------------	-----

Subject Index	393
-------------------------	-----

