This volume derives from a conference on comparative military justice hosted at Freie Universität Berlin in July 2022 as part of the project “Law without Mercy: Japanese Courts-Martial and Military Courts during the Asia-Pacific War, 1937–1945”. This project’s principal aim has been to advance the historical understanding of the inherent reasons and mechanisms of mass violence during the Asia-Pacific War and the role that military justice played in it. For more information, please visit <https://www.lawwithoutmercy.eu/>. The project has received funding from the European Research Council (ERC) under the European Union’s Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme (grant agreement no. 819892). It was also financed in part by the open access fund for books of Freie Universität Berlin.
