

Contents

Laury Sarti

- 1 Introduction. Interdisciplinary approaches to early medieval mobility — 1

I Mobility of People and Objects

Marco Cristini

- 2 Exotic gifts and learned envoys. Sixth-century cultural diplomacy on the move — 13

Michel Summer

- 3 Studying the networks and the mobility of clerics between Ireland, Britain and Francia (c. 640–750) — 29

Shigeto Kikuchi

- 4 Motivations and purposes of travel in the Carolingian age — 43

Tobias Gärtner

- 5 Friesen in der Fremde? Zur Mobilität friesischer Händler im Spiegel der Keramikfunde — 61

Abel de Lorenzo Rodríguez

- 6 Out of the village. Short-distance exile and local communities in Iberia (c. 700–1200) — 81

Laury Sarti

- 7 Mobility and networks from 976 to 991 in the letters of Gerbert of Reims. A quantitative approach — 101

Russell Ó Riagáin

- 8 Shifting patterns of mobility in the Insular Scandinavian diaspora between the ninth and eleventh centuries — 127

II Landscapes and Infrastructure

Michael Kahle and Rüdiger Glaser

- 9 Climatic conditions and mobility from 1000 to 1500. Hermeneutic and statistical approaches — 161

Pierre Fütterer

- 10 Die ottonische Machtbasis im Fokus. GIS als Mittel zur Analyse mittelalterlicher Raumstrukturen — 187

Irmela Herzog

- 11 Reconstructing past movement patterns on the basis of known old roads. A case study on pre-industrial roads in a hilly area in Germany — 213

Anna Swieder

- 12 Forgotten pathways. The potential of LiDAR data to record old roads and tracks in medieval cultural landscapes — 243

Wouter Verschoof-van der Vaart, Eva Kaptijn, Quentin Bourgeois, and Karsten Lambers

- 13 Using Citizen Science to map hollow roads in LiDAR data from the Netherlands. Results from the Heritage Quest project — 271

Bart Holterman

- 14 Sources and methods for the reconstruction of medieval and early modern sea routes in northern Europe — 287

Helene von Trott zu Solz

- 15 Conclusion. New paths to the study of early medieval mobility — 307

General Index — 313

Place index — 315