

Contents

The Politics of Historical Thinking — V

Introduction

Berber Bevernage and Lutz Raphael

- 1 New Roles for Professional Historians and New Public Uses of the Past — 3

Part One: Histoires Engagées: A Critical Look Back

Stefan Berger

- 2 Eric Hobsbawm as a Public Champion of Cosmopolitan Universalism — 37

Larissa Schulte Nordholt

- 3 Two Sides of Activist Scholarship Within UNESCO's General History of Africa (1964–1998) — 65

Kanad Sinha

- 4 Colonial Historiography, Hindutva, and the Difficulty of Reading the Ancient Indian Historical Traditions — 89

Part Two: Law and Historical Expertise

Vladimir Petrović

- 5 Challenges of Historical Expert Witnessing in the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and Elsewhere — 117

Bain Attwood

- 6 The Waitangi Tribunal and the Public Life of History — 141

Part Three: Old and New Public Demands on Professional Historians

Fernando Nicolazzi

- 7 Between Discipline and Profession: Historical Studies and Their Public Relevance in Brazil — 163

Marie-Gabrielle Verbergt

- 8 Policy-Oriented History for the EU: The Rise of a New Type of Professional Practice for Historians? — 185

June Bam and Rafael Verbuyst

- 9 Indigenous History, Activism, and the Decolonizing University: Challenges, Opportunities, and the Struggle over the Khoisan Past in Post-apartheid South Africa — 213

Part Four: Public History in New Media

Alexandra Kolesnik, Boris Stepanov, and Irina Savelieva

- 10 Russian Public Historians in the New Media (The Case of Telegram) — 245

Flávia Florentino Varella and Rodrigo Bragio Bonaldo

- 11 Practices of Popular Science and Digital Curation in Theory of History on the Portuguese Edition of Wikipedia — 271

Part Five: Perspectives: Moral, Epistemic, and Political

Antoon De Baets

- 12 Historians and Human Rights Advocacy — 299

Jakob Tanner

- 13 The Politics of Memory and the Task of Historians — 327

Benjamin Zachariah

- 14 Languages of Legitimation and the Registers of Legitimate History — 351

Biographical Notes — 373

Selected Bibliography on ‘Public Uses of the Past and the Role of Professional Historians in the Public Sphere’ — 379

Index — 385

