

About the Author and Series Editor

Matt Qvortrup is Professor of Political Science at Coventry University and an adjunct Professor of Constitutional Law at the Australian National University. A political scientist, his research centers on the tension between political actors being driven by emotion and driven by rational argument. Author of many books on referendums and democracy, the new edition of Qvortrup's Death by a Thousand Cuts (DeGruyter 2023) pioneers interdisciplinary research in Neuropolitics and shows how political debates can be analysed using insights from fMRI-scans, history, and philosophy. Matt was the Editor-in-Chief of European Political Science Review 2016–2024.
