

Contents

Acknowledgments — V

Michèle Lowrie, Barbara Vinken

Introduction: With and Against Rome — 1

I Before Paris

Susanna Elm

“Le Jour de Gloire” – Augustine of Hippo on Glory, Renewal, and the Law of War in the City of God (Book 1) — 11

Anselm Haverkamp

Second Romes, and no Sense of an Ending — 31

II Early Classicisms

Tristan Alonge

Néron et Louis XIV au miroir racinien : monstre ou grand prince naissant ? — 51

Larry F. Norman

Versailles, A New Rome? Perrault and the Quarrel of the Ancients and Moderns — 67

III Classicism Enlightened and Revolutionized

Philip Hardie

Translatio laudum*. Rubens’ Maria de’ Medici cycle, and Voltaire’s Henriade — 89

Christine Tauber

Jacques-Louis David's Roman Revolutions in Paris — 113

IV Romanticism and Realism

Barbara Vinken

Heinrich von Kleist's Napoleonic Romans in the Teutonic Woods — 143

Stephan Leopold

Empire – Typologie – Apocalypse — 161

V Palimpsests beyond Origins

Andrea Frisch

Calendars, Commemoration, Containment: The Saint Bartholomew's Day Massacre(s) and Roman Practices of Commemorating Defeat — 183

Michael P. Steinberg

The Cry of Laocoön. Myths and Countermyths of the Founding of Cities — 201

Michèle Lowrie

Epilogue: Before Rome — 223

List of Contributors — 227

Figure Credits — 229