

Table of Contents

Andreas Oberdorf and Bernhard Hemetsberger

Searching for “the West” in the History of Education — 1

Conceptual Attempts on/from “the West”

Riccardo Bavaj

Between Evolutionary and Container Concept: Western Self-Assertions, German Westernizers, and the Spatialization of Political Thought — 13

Perspectives on “the West”

Bernhard Hemetsberger

The Best in the West? The “West” in and as School Crisis Narratives — 33

Frank Jacob

Reaching Modernity through Western Education? Debates and Practices in Modern Japan, 1853 – 1894 — 55

Timm Gerd Hellmanzik

“The West” from a Postcolonial Perspective of History of Education: The Construct “Europe” as a Conceptual Boarder — 73

Silke Mende

French Discourses on the “West,” “Modernity,” and “Civilization”: The Example of francophonie républicaine — 89

Viktoria Boretska

Discursive Strategies of the Soviet Union in Legitimizing the Western “Borrowing”: The (Re)Invention of the West and the Case of Programmed Instruction — 103

Sergei I. Zhuk

Americanization “Russian Style”: Russia’s Love–Hate Relations with America — 127

May Jehle

Letztes Jahr Titanic (1990) and Große weite Welt (1997)

Documentary (Re-)Presentations of the Transformation Process in and of the GDR — 149

Karen Lillie

In Pursuit of the Frontier: Changes at an American School in Switzerland — 167

Epistemological Endeavors on “the West”

Roberto Kulpa

Re-Thinking “Europe” with Central-Eastern Europe: Towards Non-Occidental and Decolonial Epistemics in/of Queer Studies — 181

Philipp Stelzel

Antagonists, Arbiters, and Allies: West German Historians and their American Colleagues — 205

List of Contributors — 223

Index — 225