

Abbreviations

All journal abbreviations follow the system of L'Année Philologique. Ancient authors, their works, and special collections are abbreviated according to OCD 4th edition, with only minor changes for clarification. Here are any other abbreviations used:

DT	A. Audollent (1904), Defixionum tabellae , Paris.
DTM	J. Blänsdorf (2012), Die defixionum tabellae des Mainzer Isis- und Mater Magna-Heiligtums, Defixionum tabellae Mogontiacenses , Mainz.
OCD	S. Hornblower, A. Spawforth, and E. Eidinow (eds.) (2012), The Oxford Classical Dictionary , Oxford.
OLD	P.G.W. Glare (ed.) (2012), Oxford Latin Dictionary , 2nd ed., Oxford.
PDM (and PGM not included in Preisendanz)	H.D. Betz (1986), The Greek Magical Papyri in Translation: Including the Demotic Spells , Chicago.
PGM	K. Preisendanz and A. Henrichs (eds.) (1974), Papyri Graecae Magicae , 2nd ed., 2 vols., Stuttgart.
SGD	Jordan, D.R. (1985), "A Survey of Greek Defixiones not included in the Special Corpora", In: GRBS 26, 151–197.

The critical and bilingual editions of several authors which are consistently and extensively used in the book are included in the bibliography. In producing my translations, I have consulted the following works:

(For the Medea)

Boyle, A.J. (2014), Seneca: Medea, Oxford.

Wilson, E.R. (2010), Seneca. Six Tragedies, Oxford.

(For Lucan)

Braund, S.H. (2008), Lucan, Civil War, Oxford.

(For Petronius)

Sullivan, J.P. (2011), Petronius: The Satyricon, London.
