

Contents

Preface — VII

Marianne Mithun

The joys and challenges of contact effects without substance — 1

Eeva Sippola

Causatives and contacts in Chabacano — 21

Christoph Schroeder

What is heritage language research good for? A critical discussion, with examples from Turkish language contacts — 41

Livio Gaeta

Remodeling inflectional classes: Strong and weak verbs in Walser German — 63

Craig Alan Volker

The convergence of Nalik with Tok Pisin: Two languages becoming one linguistic repertoire — 93

Tom Güldemann

A Kwadi perspective on Khoe juncture-verb constructions — 117

Julia Nintemann, Maike Vorholt, Deborah Arbes & Kevin Behrens

OUT OF our minds and ONTO the paper: On the morphological complexity of configurational spatial relations — 147

Johanna Mattissen

Aspectual head/dependent marking in relation to verb/satellite framing — 199

Silvia Luraghi

The origin of agent markers – Metaphors underlying the extension of spatial prepositions in European languages — 243

Paolo Ramat

What(ever) will be, will be — 265

Bernard Comrie

Uilta (Orok) attributive adjective order: Grammar, text, typology — 275

Martin Haspelmath

Roots and root classes in comparative grammar — 307

Michael Spagnol

Taf x'naf?* A closer look at stative verbs in Maltese — 325

Tabula gratulatoria — 349

Language index — 351

Subject index — 355