

Acknowledgements

Drafts of a number of contributions were presented at two thematic sessions at the XVIIIth International Conference on Patristic Studies in Oxford (20–21 August 2019). A selection of papers from those sessions was after the conference expanded with contributions that were invited and with others that were offered.

We thank all contributors for their collaboration and constructive participation in the thematic sessions and/or the volume. We extend our gratitude to our peers who in their role as anonymous reviewers offered valuable advice and input, to the benefit of the individual contributions as well as the volume as a whole.

Annette von Stockhausen generously helped out with the infrastructure and preparation of the online datasets that accompany the contributions of Barbara Cros-tini and Reinhart Ceulemans: we thank her for her expert help. We also thank Arnd Rattmann and Frederik Ohlenbusch for their technical support in the realization of the volume and the indexes.

For their permission to publish images of manuscripts from their collection, we thank the Bayerische Staatsbibliothek (Munich), the Bibliothèque nationale de France (Paris), the Biblioteca Nazionale Marciana (Venice) and the Εθνική Βιβλιοθήκη της Ελλάδος (Athens).

We dedicate this volume to the memory of Franz Xaver Risch († 12 November 2023).
