

Contents

Acknowledgements — VII

Preface — XIII

Abbreviations — XV

Glossary — XVII

Notation — XXV

A. Introduction — 1

- I. Content, character and purpose of the Hypotyposis — 1
- II. Composition of the Hypotyposis — 11
 - 1. Proclus' sources — 11
 - 2. Proclus' writing techniques and process — 18
- III. The place of the Hypotyposis in Proclus' works — 23
 - 1. The astronomical hypotheses in the Commentaries on the Timaeus and the Republic — 23
 - 2. The Hypotyposis as a mathematical appendix to the exegesis of Plato's cosmology — 29
- IV. Proclus' approach to the instrumental component of astronomy — 34
 - 1. Descriptions of instruments for astronomical purposes — 34
 - 2. Astronomical instruments as models of the physical world — 38
- V. Diagrams and illustrations: an aspect of the mathematical discourse in the Hypotyposis — 41
 - 1. The presence and role of diagrams and illustrations in the Hypotyposis — 41
 - 2. Astronomical propositions and the function of diagrams in them — 45
 - 3. Examination of the diagrams and illustrations of the manuscripts of the Hypotyposis: motives, scope and purposes — 49
 - 4. Manuscripts of the Hypotyposis examined — 55
 - 5. Diagrams/illustrations of the Hypotyposis in the Byzantine manuscripts: some scribal practices — 60
 - 6. Annotated record and classification of the diagrams/illustrations of the manuscripts — 62
 - 7. Affinities of the manuscripts of the Hypotyposis in terms of diagrams/illustrations — 67

Analytical table of contents of the Hypotyposis — 73

B. Text and translation — 77

- Note on the Greek text — 77
- Translation policies — 78
- Chapter I “Proemium” — 86
- Chapter II “On the astronomical hypotheses” — 100
- Chapter III “On the Sun” — 118
- Chapter IV “On the Moon” — 156
- Chapter V “On the five planets” — 202
- Chapter VI “On the construction and use of the astrolabe” — 254
- Chapter VII “Recapitulation of the whole treatise” — 266

C. Commentary — 289

- Table of correlation between the Hypotyposis and the Almagest — 289
- Table of correlation between the Hypotyposis and sources other than the Almagest — 295
- Chapter I “Proemium” — 300
- Chapter II “On the astronomical hypotheses” — 358
- Chapter III “On the Sun” — 381
- Chapter IV “On the Moon” — 420
- Chapter V “On the five planets” — 480
- Chapter VI “On the construction and use of the astrolabe” — 563
- Chapter VII “Recapitulation of the whole treatise” — 581

D. Diagrams and illustrations — 635

- I. Diagrams and illustrations accompanying the text of the Hypotyposis — 635
 - 1. Notes — 635
 - 2. Summary table — 669
- II. Extra diagrams and illustrations of the manuscripts of the Hypotyposis — 673
 - 1. Notes — 673
 - 2. Summary table — 687

Bibliography — 691

- Editions and translations — 691
- Secondary literature — 696
- Websites — 701
- Astronomical software — 701

Index Nominum — 703

Index Verborum — 707

Index Locorum — 711