

Contents

List of Figures — XIII

Abbreviations — XV

Map of Afghanistan — 1

Chapter 1

Introduction — 3

Background — 5

Defining Afghan Women — 6

Our Approach and Methods — 6

Book Outline — 8

Chapter 2

Theory and Practice — 12

Feminist Pragmatism and Grounded and Engaged Normative
Theory — 13

Dynamics of the Women, Peace, and Security Agenda — 15

Transnational Networks and Transformative Agency — 17

Conclusion — 19

Chapter 3

Culture and Religion — 21

Cultural and Religious Norms — 23

Islam and Women's Rights — 25

"Afghan Culture" and Women's Rights — 27

Grounded Engagement with Women, Peace and Security Norms — 32

Conclusion — 34

Chapter 4

War — 36

The Experience of War — 37

The Impact of War — 42

Continuation of War Against Women — 45

Conclusion — 46

Chapter 5

Peace — 48

- Women, Peace and Security, 2001 – 2018 — 49
- Feminist Representation — 54
- Peacemaking with the Taliban, 2018 – 2021 — 57
- Peacemaking Since 2021 — 59
- Conclusion — 60

Chapter 6

Intersectionality — 62

- What is Intersectionality? — 64
- Intersectional Violence Against Hazara Women — 66
- Implications for the Women, Peace and Security Agenda — 72
- Conclusion — 75

Chapter 7

Humanitarianism — 77

- Humanitarianism and the Gender Agenda, 2001 – 2021 — 78
- Humanitarian Principles — 83
- Humanitarianism and Gender Apartheid, 2021 – 2025 — 84
- Strengthening Humanitarian Action — 87
- Conclusion — 88

Chapter 8

Agency — 89

- Agency as a Concept — 89
- Inside/Outside Paradox — 90
- Individual Agency from 2001 — 91
- Collective Agency Post-2021 — 93
- Towards the Future — 98
- Conclusion — 100

Chapter 9

Conclusion — 101

- Governing Through Gender Apartheid — 103
- The Agency of Afghan Women — 105
- Lessons-Learned on Women, Peace, and Security in Afghanistan — 106

What is to be Done? — 108
Research-informed Activism — 111
Conclusion — 112

Bibliography — 114

Index — 131

