

Contents

Yael Bromberg and Jonathan Becker

Introduction — 1

Yael Bromberg

1 Evolution of the Right to Vote and the Youth Vote: The First and Second Reconstruction — 11

Jonathan Becker

2 Civic Actors and Student Voting — 53

Lisa Bratton

3 Tuskegee Institute and the Struggle for African American Voting Rights — 77

Alexander Goodwin and Michael J. Nojeim

4 The Prairie View Paradox: Age, Race, and the Evolving/Changing Landscape of Student Voting Rights at an HBCU in Texas — 111

Jelani Favors

5 The Road to Democracy: How the Gerrymandering of North Carolina A&T State University Transformed Politics and Protest at the Nation's Largest HBCU — 145

Jonathan Becker

6 Bard College: Jim Crow in Dutchess County — 173

Jonathan Becker

7 Lessons Learned: Summary of the Cases — 205

Erin Cannan

8 A Practical Guide to Encouraging Student Voting — 231

Yael Bromberg and Jonathan Becker

Conclusion: From the 26th Amendment to the 2024 Election and Beyond — 267

Jonathan Becker, Lisa Bratton, Yael Bromberg, Jelani Favors, Simon Gilhooley, Melanye Price

Afterword: Reflections on the Course “Student Voting: Power, Politics, and Race in the Fight for American Democracy” — 285

Index — 295