This book is based on a dissertation handed in at the Faculty of Arts and Humanities of the University of Cologne in the subject of History (defensio 15 January 2024).

I particularly would like to thank Dirk Pauwels (city of Tongeren) and Alain Vanderhoeven (Flanders Heritage Agency) for their relentless tips and advice, their listening ear and - in Alain's case - conscientious proofreading. I would also like to thank both of them for helping with archaeological terms and archaeology in general. A special thanks also goes to the team of ARON bvba, especially Elke Wesemael, Natasja De Winter and Patrick Reygel. Their tips were very valuable, but especially their knowledge and method of excavation and reporting are of utmost importance. A special thanks also goes to both my supervisors at the University of Cologne, Prof.Dr. Karl Ubl and Prof.Dr. Sebastian Ristow.

I would also like to thank the following people who provided tips or contributed to the creation of this book: Jan Box (Tongeren), Guido Creemers (Gallo-Roman Museum Tongeren), Wim Dijkman (city of Maastricht), Sander Govaerts, Sofie Hechtermans (Teseum Tongeren), Sarah Mingels, Robert Nouwen, Sylvie Paesen (RMAH), Arent Pol (University of Leiden), Lea Raith (University of Cologne), Jean-Luc Schutz (Le Grand Curtius), Gilbert Soeters (city of Maastricht), Fran Stroobants (Royal Coin Cabinet Brussels), Igor Vandenvonder (Gallo-Roman Museum Tongeren), Johan Van Heesch (University of Leuven), Jean-Jacques van Ormelingen, Muriel Van Ruymbeke (University of Liège), Vince Van Thienen (University of Ghent), Vicky Verscheijden (city of Tongeren), Eric Wetzels (city of Maastricht), the team of the depot of the Flanders Heritage Agency and Rudi Hayen.

A special thanks goes to Christiane Jacobs and Marc Mullens for their inspiration. A special thanks also goes to the team of De Gruyter, the colleagues of the city archives of Tongeren and several other municipal co-workers. A final thanks goes to my family: Lieve, Bent and Nelle, my mother and father-in-law.
